

An aerial photograph of the USC ISI building, a tall white structure with vertical black stripes, situated next to a large marina filled with sailboats. The building has a black rooftop structure. In the foreground, there is a parking lot with several cars and palm trees. The background shows more of the marina and surrounding urban area.

Greetings from the COLDEST PLACE ON EARTH

USC ISI
Marina del Rey, CA

Scan the QR code to learn more.

Be transported in four easy steps.

1 Turn the volume up on your phone.

2 Scan the QR code on front of this card.

3 Hold the card in front of your phone.

4 Brace yourself!

The USC-Lockheed Martin Quantum Computing Center (QCC)

The first operational quantum computing system in academia