

CONGRATULATIONS TO

PROFESSOR PETROS IOANNOU

NEWLY ELECTED TO THE

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF ENGINEERING

USC Viterbi
School of Engineering

Petros Ioannou

The USC Viterbi School of Engineering congratulates Petros Ioannou, the A.V. “Bal” Balakrishnan Chair and Professor in the Ming Hsieh Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, for his election as a member of the National Academy of Engineering. Election to the National Academy of Engineering is one of the highest professional honors for an engineer.

Ioannou is the director of the Center for Advanced Transportation Technologies (CATT) where his research focuses on control and applications, adaptive and nonlinear systems, vehicle dynamics and control, intelligent transportation systems, marine transportation, congestion control of computer networks and neural networks. He is a Fellow of IEEE, IFAC, IET and AAAS and the author/co-author of nine books and over 400 research publications.
